

Homecoming Week January 23rd-January 28th, 2012

In the spirit of fun, students are allowed to celebrate Homecoming Week with special activities and dress. Though dress code is not required for most of the week, appropriate attire is required. If you are in doubt about your choice, choose something different. For examples of what not to wear, see Item 11 on page 39 of Parent/Student Handbook.

Monday: Blue and Gold Day

Show your school pride by wearing blue and gold.

Tuesday: The Game of Life Day

Based on a game show, each of the 6-12 grades will be assigned a stage of life from which a costume is to be worn. Again, appropriate choices in dress are required. Diapers must be worn over pants.

Teachers and Staff: Dress as in the Hereafter

Seniors: Dress as Senior Citizens

Juniors: Dress as Adults

Sophomores: Dress as Little Kids

Freshmen: Dress as Infants

Middle School: Any stage

Elementary students will have a Rainbow Day: Dress is to include every color of a Rainbow

Wednesday: Animal Day

Students may dress as their favorite animal or wear animal print clothes.

6-12 students will participate in hall decorating from 2:00-3:00 PM.

Thursday: Sports Day

Students may dress as a favorite sport's player or wear the apparel of your favorite team.

Hall Clean-up at 2:45 prior to dismissal.

Friday: Dress Up Day

Students are to wear Dress Code or better.

Homecoming Mass at the Church at 8:00

Pep Rally at CCA following Mass.

K-2 students return to school after Mass.

Irish Olympics for 9-12 at CCA following Pizza Lunch

6-8 Middle School Talent Show in the school gym after lunch.

V G/B vs. Morningstar @ CCA 6:15/ Junior Class sponsors a meal./Proceeds for PROM

Saturday: Homecoming Dance 8-11 PM in the school gym.

Brand the Mustangs!!!!!! Go Irish!!!!!!