MEMORIES FROM THE SMHS CLASS OF 1941

We are always interested in what you, the readers of The Grapevine, are interested in reading. We will gladly take suggestions for articles for this front page feature. Don Jacobs (SMHS 1975) offered that his uncle, Francis Jacobs (SMHS 1941) might be a great candidate for this feature.

Francis is an ideal example of a life well lived during and after his years of education in the Clinton Catholic schools. Francis is a proud member of the St. Mary's Class of 1941 which consisted of fourteen boys and twelve girls. Francis is the son of Harry and Mary Jacobs and was the fifth child of ten. His years at St. Mary's Grade School and High School were busy with school work, extra-curricular activities, and a job. Francis reflects that as a high school student his favorite classes were bookkeeping, English, Latin, and math. His love of bookkeeping sparked his interest so much that his lifetime career with the Internal Revenue Service can be traced back to his early days as a teenager. Francis comments that his favorite teacher, Sr. Mary Christiana, BVM, his bookkeeping teacher, "was very thoughtful of her students."

As with all students, there are classes that are not as appealing as that one class or subject that could hold your interest for the entire day. For Francis, his freshman year of Ancient History taught by Sr. Mildredeen was that class for him. He remarks that he believes he was too young to appreciate the dry subject matter but that Sister was a very good teacher.

Outside of the classroom, Francis was a busy young man as he participated in choral club, the senior play, Sodality, football, where he lettered as a senior, scouts, and basketball. His family attended St. Mary's Church where Francis was an altar boy as well. During his high school years, he worked briefly for a hardware store and then secured a 7 day a week job with Crystal Dairy where his brother Richard was the bookkeeper and main route manager. Francis washed bottles and cans for $1.00 a day.

After high school, Francis worked for the railroad as a boilermaker apprentice before serving his country in the United States Navy from May 1943 until August 1946. Francis was an Aerial Navigator and served in Guam and Japan. During his time with the Navy, he was stationed in Memphis, Tennessee, where in 1944 he met his future wife, Catherine Gattuso. After his discharge from the service, Francis was able to graduate from St. Ambrose College in Davenport, Iowa, with a Bachelor of Science degree in Business in 1950.

That year was important for another reason as Francis and Catherine married in Memphis on June 17, 1950. His employment with the IRS in Davenport began in 1949 so the newlyweds returned to the Davenport area until 1959. Francis' career allowed him to acquire the position of Collections

Officer and as a Field Agent/Appeasement Officer. St. Paul, Minnesota, was the next destination for the Jacobs family and where they lived from 1959 on. In 1982, Francis retired from the IRS and acquired part-time employment as an administrator for the Leo C. Byrne Residence for retired priests in the Archdiocese of St. Paul and Minneapolis. He held this position until July 1999.

Francis' and Catherine's marriage held many blessings as they celebrated 65+ years of marriage. Their legacy lives on with their eight children (five boys and three girls), 18 grandchildren, and 17 great grandchildren. During their retirement years, the Jacobs' enjoyed square dancing and line dancing as well as RV travel to the lower 48 states and Canada. Winters were spent in the Tampa area. Francis points out that he and his wife had the joy of celebrating their 90th birthdays together in Red Wing, Minnesota, with family and friends in attendance from eight states. Sadly Catherine passed away in August 2015.

Today, Francis continues to live an active life at the Marian Center of St. Paul Cerenity. He counts his large family as a blessing in his life. As he reflects on his four years at St. Mary's High School, Francis notes that his childhood pastor, Msgr. Galligan (St. Mary's Parish), "demonstrated a devotion and love to St. Joseph which I have tried to emulate in all of my life." He fondly remembers his very best friends who included Tom Dolan, Bob Cunningham, Bill Noonan, Jack McAndrews, Bud McConnell, and Jack Leonard.

When asked to reflect on his Catholic education, Francis summed up his experience by saying that "16 years of Catholic education is irreplaceable!" He continues to say, "(I have) no golden words but the value of perseverance, faith, and trust are mine."

Francis and Catherine are shown ready for a trip to Florida in 2003.

PLAYERS VISIT THEIR COACH

This March marked the 40th anniversary of the 1977 Class "A" State Championship. Coached by John Lingle, and assisted by Bill Beyers, the team went 21 -1, scored 100 or more points 3 times and won the conference title. After defeating defending state champs, Iowa City Regina with a last second shot, then defeating Tripoli, the Irish went into the state tournament as the favorite. Photo: L to R: Steve Dermody, Greg Matheny, Jeff Ludvigsen, Brent Murphy, Mike Ehrhart, Joe Shovlain, Bill Techau, Mike Witt, Steve Miller, Dave Hansen, Mike Manion, Denise Wolf, Randy Farwell, Bill Pranger, Matt Lemke. Manager Terry Hyde, Mike McClimon.

A big thank you goes out to Tom McAndrews (SMHS 1954) who wrote to us about a little road trip that was taken in February. Tom writes, "On February 12th and 13th, players Dick Lingle (SMHS 1953) and Tom (SMHS 1954) and George (McAndrews, SMHS 1953) visited their 1953 State Champion's Coach, Lou Galetich." The former players went to Galetich's home in Madrid, Iowa, and spent hours reminiscing about their 1953 championship season. The group watched the film "Irish Dream" and enjoyed dining together and sharing stories and laughter "for many hours before an emotional "farewell" Monday afternoon." Tom relates that "Coach was in high spirits and full of memories of his years at St. Mary's. He recently celebrated his 88th birthday." Irish Dream is a video produced by Tom McAndrews and is a fitting tribute to the players, cheerleaders, coaches, and fans who witnessed this amazing season. Thanks for the news, Tom, and Happy Birthday, Coach!

PRINCE OF PEACE CATHOLIC SCHOOL EARNs HIGH RANKING AMONG IOWA HIGH SCHOOLS

In January 2017, Prince of Peace Catholic School was named one of the top ten Catholic schools in the state of Iowa by Niche's rankings. Niche analyzes data and public reviews to produce rankings, report cards and profiles of K-12 educational institutions. Prince of Peace was ranked number six among Iowa Catholic high schools and as the number nine among Iowa private high schools. Eighteen Catholic schools and twenty-seven private schools were examined. The positive rating came from data collected about ACT/SAT scores and was weighted the heaviest at 30%. Other factors analyzed included percentage of students heading to college, diversity, and parent and student survey results. Karen Witt, Prince of Peace Development Director, shares, "Anytime you can be recognized in a ranking in the top ten shows we're going in the right direction. It's a nice honor especially since part of the rankings is feedback from parents and students."

team of Caitlyn Jacobs and Rebecca DiVarco. Junior Conner Williams, and his parents, Theresa and Paul (MSCA 1979), right, show confidence in their engineering creation. Dr. Katherine Atkinson, high school science teacher, organized the fun evening and states that students are already plotting designs for next year's event.

BUILDING BRIDGES

The Prince of Peace physics class sponsored their first Family Engineering and Pasta Night on February 28, 2017. Twenty-four students, parents, and grand-parents formed 7 family teams, enjoyed a spaghetti dinner and built bridges from fettuccini noodles and glue. All of the bridges were able to span a 12-inch gap between stacks of Advanced Placement Chemistry textbooks (our toughest class!) and be able to carry weight. The winning two bridges carried over three and half bricks before spectacular collapses. Tied for top bragging rights are shown at left the senior

While our winter hasn't been normal this year, what has been normal are great performances by Prince of Peace students at the Iowa High School Speech Association district and state competitions. Students competed at the district level in large group and individual events and many advanced to state competition. Under the direction of Kathy Andrews, high school speech coach, senior Seth Moeller received the highest rating of "I" in the category of Short Film at the district level. A prior college commitment kept him from participating at the State level.

For individual competition, junior Evan Tiesman received the highest rating of "I" in the Review category. Seniors Rebecca DiVarco and Jackie Posey received "I" ratings in the categories of Radio News Announcing and Solo Musical Theater, respectively. Evan, Rebecca, and Jackie all advanced to State competition at Vinton-Shellsburg High School in mid-March. Congratulations to all competitors.

OH, THE THINKS YOU can THINK

One of the many benefits at Prince of Peace School is the opportunity to participate in the fall and spring plays. This year's spring production of "Seussical, Jr." took place during the last few days of winter under the direction of drama coach Tom Jankowski and musical coach Nicole Schmidt. Students from 4th grade through 12th grade practiced many long hours for the three performances. All of the favorites including Horton, The Cat in the Hat, and many others from the Dr. Seuss books took to the stage with rousing musical numbers and ballads. Congratulations to the cast and crew of Seussical, Jr.

BREAKING RECORDS

Scoring Record!!! Prince of Peace Catholic School senior, Seth Moeller, (left) reached a pinnacle of high school athletics scoring his 1000th point on January 13, 2017, at Central Catholic Auditorium. Irish eyes were smiling on Seth and the team as they beat Calamus-Wheatland in Tri-River Conference action 67-53. Seth started the game as Iowa's number 5 leading scorer and finished his high school career with a total of 1,225 points.

200 Wins!!! Irish boy's basketball coach, Gerry Murphy, is shown above with his senior players from the 2016-2017 season. From left to right are Devin Bilek, Aedan Marlowe, Murphy, Seth Moeller, and Will Andresen. Gerry Murphy has been an institution for Irish sports for 20 years. Back in 1997, Gerry served as an assistant basketball coach for the Fresh/Soph boys while his son, Ryan Murphy (MDHS 2001), played on that team. During the 2001-2002 season, Gerry became the head varsity coach for the Irish and was the fifth coach in six years. Gerry comments, "One of the reasons I became the varsity coach was to bring some stability to the program." Stability to Irish athletics has been achieved. Gerry, an employee in the shipping department of Clysar, LLC, (formerly DuPont), reached a milestone of his own by coaching his 200th win at the February 21, 2017, Class 1A District 8 semi-final game against Calamus/Wheatland with a score of 66-55. Gerry was also named Coach of the Year for the Tri-Rivers Conference, East Division. Gerry's record as coach for Mater Dei/Prince of Peace is 200-163. His teams have performed exceptionally well and this season is no exception. Gerry's coaching took teams to Iowa sub-state play in 2009 and 2011. Gerry's commitment to Irish athletics is summed up in his own words. "Every year there are special memories, watching the freshmen develop thru the years—maturing physically and mentally going from boys to men." Congratulations and thank you, Gerry, for your dedication to our school and our athletic program. Go Irish!!!

This year one of our students lost a parent and we have lost a beloved member of our school family. Chuck Bilek passed away from injuries sustained in a car accident on January 28, 2017. Chuck owned a business for 30 years and was active in the Knights of Columbus, Boy Scouts and Irish Boosters.

Chuck was known for his one liners that made everyone feel special and laugh. Chuck and his wife, Starla have three children, Amanda (MDHS 1998), Devin and Taciana. Devin is a senior at Prince of Peace Catholic School.

We all feel blessed to have known him. His love of life and kindness to others will be missed but not forgotten.

Anabel Blount hangs her memory of Chuck Bilek on the Memory Cross that was available to students after Chuck passed away.

Thank you to Grace (Kampling) Schroeder (SMHS 1955) for sharing her 1955 Blugolds, class pictures, and play program – “Father Knows Best”. We will put this memorabilia out at future reunions. I know the office staff got a kick out of reading them.

Thank you to the person who brought in the photo of Mount St. Clare College & Academy in Washington D.C. Taken on May 1959. We apologize, your name was separated from the photo.

Alumni Planned Giving Will Impact Future PoP Families

Catherine C. Donahue, a graduate of the St. Mary's High School Class of 1943, has named Prince of Peace Catholic School in her Will. Miss Donahue passed away on June 29, 2016. She is the daughter of William and Regina Donahue. Her sibling include: Mary (Warren) Kaffenberger, Pat (Jerry) Byers (SMHS 1936), Eleanor (Robert) Ferraris (SMHS 1939), William (SMHS 1938).

Miss Donahue used her Last Will and Testament as the vehicle to insure that her estate would go to the family members and organizations that were important to her. The gift to the school will be placed in the Prince of Peace School Foundation and as per her wishes, a named scholarship will be established in memory of her parents and family. Every year, Miss Donahue's generosity will be acknowledged in the form of an annual scholarship to one of more Prince of Peace Catholic School students.
