

FRESHMEN SCHOLARSHIPS

The following scholarships are available for students registered to attend Prince of Peace Catholic High School next fall as freshmen. The scholarships will be awarded to students who complete and return the attached application by April 21, 2023. An independent scholarship selection committee of Prince of Peace parishioners will select scholarship recipients. Freshmen can receive no more than two scholarships (unless there are insufficient applicants, in which case, students are eligible to receive more than two).

> GEORGE MCANDREWS FAMILY SCHOLARSHIP

»$650

The George McAndrews Family Scholarship was established in 2015 by George McAndrews as a way to thank his parents for the Catholic education he received. George attended St. Mary's Elementary School and went on to graduate from St. Mary's High School in 1953. He was a member of the 1953 Iowa State Basketball Championship Team. George's commitment to Catholic education extends to his own children who attended Catholic schools.

> THOMAS & PEGGY MCANDREWS FAMILY SCHOLARSHIP

»$800

The Thomas & Peggy McAndrews Family Scholarship was established in 2015 by Tom McAndrews in appreciation for the Catholic education he received at St. Mary's for 12 years. Tom graduated in 1954 and was a member of the 1953 Iowa State Basketball Championship Team.

> THOMAS "PINKY" MCDONNELL SCHOLARSHIP

»$1,300

The Thomas "Pinky" McDonnell Scholarship was established in 1989 by the family of Mr. McDonnell, a 1948 graduate of St. Mary's High School and a strong supporter of Catholic education in Clinton. The recipient(s) must be a current eighth grade student(s) at Prince of Peace Catholic School.

> JOHN LINGLE MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP

»$1,350

The John Lingle Memorial Scholarship has been established by family and friends of John. John Lingle graduated from St. Mary's High School in 1956 and taught at St. Mary's and Mater Dei High Schools from 1968 to 1990. During those 23 years he coached many outstanding students in basketball, baseball, football, golf and track. This scholarship is to be awarded to a current Prince of Peace eighth grade student.

> ROBERT SHANNON MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP

»$600

The Robert Shannon Memorial Scholarship has been established by Robert's older brother, John Shannon (SMHS 1962), family and friends. John wanted to do something that would keep Robert's memory alive. Robert Shannon graduated from Clinton High School in 1968, was drafted and sent to Vietnam in 1969. On April 30, 1970, Robert received fatal injuries after subjecting himself to enemy fire as he rushed from his foxhole to trap insurgents, saving the lives of others. After his death, Robert was awarded the Silver Star, Bronze Star, Purple Heart, and Good Conduct Medal. By establishing this scholarship in the Prince of Peace School Foundation, Robert's selfless acts of heroism will be recognized.

› BERNARD “BUBS” MAYER SCHOLARSHIP

››$700
